VETERAN ORGANIZATIONS SHOW SUPPORT FOR LIFELINE SERVICE DOGS IN MENA ARKANSAS

Veteran organizations for DAV, VFW, American Legion and The Marine Corp League invited LifeLine Service Dogs to speak at their March meetings. Their generous support and warm welcome to Arkansas's own unique service dog program exemplified the Veteran brotherhood and comraderie here in our community.

LifeLine Service Dogs is a unique resource who's home office sits in Polk County, Arkansas. LifeLine provides, trains and donates, at no charge, highly skilled, task trained canines to help Veterans, Active Duty, First Responders, Gold Star/Military families, children and qualified civilian individuals navigate medically diagnosed illnesses that affect daily life. To understand the magnitude of the impact of this service dog resource, visit www.lifelineservicedogs.org

LifeLine Service Dogs would like to encourage any Veteran to join any of the applicable Veteran organizations located here in Polk County.
